

Tolay Fall Festival

Fun, food and a free park pass for volunteers

October
13th - 16th
19th - 23rd

Volunteers are invited to help with this year's Fall Festival at Tolay Lake Regional Park. Located on the outskirts of Petaluma this 1700-acre working ranch is a place of great beauty and historical importance. Volunteers can assist park staff in our heritage crafts booths, Night Time Creatures Barn, old fashioned game area, hay wagon rides, and the pumpkin patch. A great time is guaranteed! All volunteers receive training, a free park pass, Tolay Festival T-Shirt, and delicious food. Orientations are scheduled throughout the month of September at the Petaluma Veteran's Building and at the Park's Main office located at 2300 County Center Dr. in Santa Rosa.
